“Autumn Affair” Schooling Show ~ Rules, Regulations and Directions

Summerhill Equestrian Center, Inc. is a private boarding and training facility owned by Jan and Doug Bernards. The dressage arena is enclosed and mirrored. Summerhill and the Santa Clarita Valley Chapter of CDS welcome competitors and their families and friends, and hope that you will enjoy this show.

For everyone's safety and to respect the wishes of the owners and their neighbors, the following rules will be strictly enforced. Most important: Have fun and be safe! If you have questions, please ask one of the volunteers.

Strictly Prohibited

- No dogs are allowed.
- No alcoholic beverages or prescription drugs or over the counter drugs that may impair your balance and/or judgment.
- No smoking
- Cruelty to or abuse of a horse is strictly forbidden. USEF anti-abuse rules will be enforced. A copy will be posted in the show office.
- Misuse of drugs and medications in show horses is prohibited by California Law. All horses entered in this Competition are subject to CDFA Drug Testing.

Please respect the owners', boarders' and neighbors' privacy and property

- Since this is a private facility, certain areas such as the houses, and areas in close proximity to the houses, will be designated as “off limits”. Please respect these boundaries.
- Please do not ride or lead your horses amongst the boarded horses' stalls. SCV-CDS volunteers will be on hand to guide you to areas of the property that are designated for our use, e.g. round pen, turnout arena, warmup arena and parking areas.
- Horses may not graze or step on the grass.
- Horse owners are responsible for any damage caused by themselves or their horses.
- Please dispose of manure, trash and recyclable materials in appropriate containers.

Boots, protective headgear, equipment and tack

- Adults must wear boots and protective headgear at all times while riding. Juniors must wear boots and protective headgear at all times when in the proximity of a horse, whether handling or riding.
- USEF rules regarding tack and equipment will be enforced.

Stabling

- Limited stalls may be available for overnight stabling and stabling on the day of the show. Please contact Betsy Mercer at 661-297-3925 to reserve a stall and to make arrangements to haul in on Friday between 1:00 and 4:00 pm. Daily stall fee is not yet set (call for details), and includes bedding, cleaning, water and feeding hay that you supply.
- The hay barn (hay, shavings, etc.) is off limits. Summerhill Staff will assist you if necessary.

Common sense rules for handling your horse

- Only competitors, handlers, coaches and trainers may handle or ride horses, and only after they have checked in, signed their releases and received their numbers. This rule also applies to Summerhill Boarders who are entered in the competition.
- Warmup and lunging will be in designated arenas only. No lunging will be allowed in the warmup or dressage arenas.
- Trotting and cantering is permitted only in turnout, warm-up and dressage arenas and on the lunge in the designated area.
- For horses boarded and those stabled at the show, turnout is permitted in the turnout arena or round pen only and one at a time. Courtesy is expected to those waiting to turn out and horses may never be left unattended. Damage to sprinklers in the turnout arena is the responsibility of the horse's owner.
- NO JUMPING WILL BE ALLOWED
- Please rinse/wash your horse only in designated wash racks.
- Please tie your horse only to your trailer and/or to designated cross-ties.

Parking and driving on the property

- Please park only in designated areas, obeying posted signs and volunteers.
- Speed must be kept under 10 miles per hour when entering or leaving the facility and 5 miles per hour when passing the horses. Please watch for Parking volunteers, who will guide you to the designated parking areas.
- Please contact Betsy Mercer at 661-297-3925 prior to the show if you intend to haul in on Friday and stable your horse overnight.
- All persons operating motorized vehicles (including golf carts) must have a valid driver's license in their possession. Wheelchairs and other mobility assistance devices are exempt from this rule.

Scratches and cancellation due to rain

- Scratches will be accepted through October 27, 2007 and refunds given through that date. No refunds will be given after October 28, 2007.
- In the event of cancellation of classes due to rain, new time schedules will be posted for all rides. The Event will not be cancelled unless management considers the footing to be unsafe.
